BRUCE BOTANICAL FOOD GARDENS HIRES GARDEN CO-ORDINATOR

Ingrid Wypkema to join the team

Ripley, ON, March 27, 2018– The Bruce Botanical Food Gardens is a registered not-for-profit organization that showcases over 250 varieties of rare, endangered and heirloom edible plants. The Board of Directors for the Bruce Botanical Food Gardens is pleased to announce that Ingrid Wypkema has been hired to fill the position of Garden Co-ordinator, effective April 4, 2018. Ingrid brings a diverse array of skills to the organization, including operating her own organic garden market business. Her experience in marketing, customer service and gardening will be an asset to the organization.

“Ingrid’s passion and creativity made her the ideal candidate for this position” stated Bruce Botanical Food Gardens President, Nan Grant “The Board is absolutely thrilled that she agreed to join our team!”

“I’m a lifelong enthusiastic organic gardener and I’m very grateful and excited to become part of the team. I will do my utmost to further the mission of sustainable food production, and to build on the impressive work that has been done at the Bruce Botanical Food Gardens to date. I look forward to welcoming all volunteers, supporters and visitors to help make the 2018 season the best yet. The opportunities are endless!” - Ingrid Wypkema

Please visit us at 62 Park Street, Ripley. You really do have to see it for yourself...it’s a rare experience.
